Throttlr is here with two interesting and irregular stuffs - a bit different tunes what You can accept from this Hellenic export. 'No Hold Back' is a solid techy choppage-kind track with huge power in it. 'Pulses' is a digital sledgehammer which refers to an ancient era of hardstep and a possible way to the hardcorish drum'n'bass. This release is another proof which states: there is reason of existence of oddish breaks and drums!

Who is Throttler?

"Some decisions in life require no thinking. Some things are meant to be. Obstacles are there only to overcome... Conductor of the machine guns symphonic orchestra, performing to droids in the constructions factory gothic underground cathedral, a play dedicated to everything unholy and destructive on this earth."

Begun as a raver back in 1992 with techno and breaks. He was firstly influenced by Prodigy, Acen, Messiah, DJ Hype and more. The dark times of 1997, drew his attention to Drum & Bass. In 1999 he started as a DJ as an amateur at local parties and at the same time worked as an employee at a local record store. Music was a part of his day life.

He started music production in 2002 with amateur equipment. Now uses "the holy trinity", Cubase, Reason, Wavelab, which haunts his project studio. His music is mostly dark, hard and fast, constantly alternating from notorious landscapes to tech dance-floor sound and vice versa.

In 2004 he gets announced "drum n bass producer of the year" in the "Unofficial Greek Drum n Bass Awards", and at that time, more active than ever, sets up the "Nation Of Distortion Crew", a crew devoted to underground electronic music with greater cause to organize the hardest electronic dance gigs in Greece. At the same time he started podcasting in net radio shows.

After the first releases, he drew the attention of various labels, always dedicated to underground electronic dance. More releases brought bookings and since 2007 he has had several international acts as an opening act for artists similar to his sound, as Evol Intent, Ewun, Spor, Enduser, and more. In September 2007, Knowledge Magazine includes two of his tunes in the included mix disc, and in May 2008 Soundmaker Magazine publishes a full interview of him and Lowbss, vocalist of every lyric in his tunes.

Currently, he is working on new ideas and projects and performing worldwide to spread his music, his perspective, his way.
